

When Loved Ones Die

*"When my children lose a loved one
do not believe I am forsaking
for I am near - promises kept,
crying with you in your pain
yet knowing more than you can now that it is time though you don't see -
unable at present to understand 'whys,'
for all things work together for the good
to those who love Me and have been called for My purpose in this world.
Seeds are planted - My power present
to bring changes in those who live
though you suffer for it to happen.
Trust in Me and lean not
to your own understanding."
(Prov. 3:5-6; Rom. 8:28)*

©Carolyn W. Patrinicola 5/99
Hydrated With Love™

When Loved Ones Die

*"When my children lose a loved one
do not believe I am forsaking
for I am near - promises kept,
crying with you in your pain
yet knowing more than you can now
that it is time though you don't see -
unable at present to understand 'whys,'
for all things work together for the good
to those who love Me and have been
called for My purpose in this world.
Seeds are planted - My power present
to bring changes in those who live
though you suffer for it to happen.
Trust in Me and lean not
to your own understanding."
(Prov. 3:5-6; Rom. 8:28)*

©Carolyn Patrinicola 5/99
Hydrated With Love™

When Loved Ones Die

*"When my children lose a loved one
do not believe I am forsaking
for I am near - promises kept,
crying with you in your pain
yet knowing more than you can now
that it is time though you don't see -
unable at present to understand 'whys,'
for all things work together for the good
to those who love Me and have been
called for My purpose in this world.
Seeds are planted - My power present
to bring changes in those who live
though you suffer for it to happen.
Trust in Me and lean not
to your own understanding."
(Prov. 3:5-6; Rom. 8:28)*

©Carolyn W. Patrinicola 5/99
Hydrated With Love™

When Loved Ones Die

*"When my children lose a loved one
do not believe I am forsaking
for I am near - promises kept,
crying with you in your pain
yet knowing more than you can now
that it is time though you don't see -
unable at present to understand 'whys,'
for all things work together for the good
to those who love Me and have been
called for My purpose in this world.
Seeds are planted - My power present
to bring changes in those who live
though you suffer for it to happen.
Trust in Me and lean not
to your own understanding."
(Prov. 3:5-6; Rom. 8:28)*

©Carolyn W. Patrinicola 5/99
Hydrated With Love™

When Loved Ones Die

*"When my children lose a loved one
do not believe I am forsaking
for I am near - promises kept,
crying with you in your pain
yet knowing more than you can now
that it is time though you don't see -
unable at present to understand 'whys,'
for all things work together for the good
to those who love Me and have been
called for My purpose in this world.
Seeds are planted - My power present
to bring changes in those who live
though you suffer for it to happen.
Trust in Me and lean not
to your own understanding."
(Prov. 3:5-6; Rom. 8:28)*

©Carolyn W. Patrinicola 5/99
Hydrated With Love™

When Loved Ones Die

*"When my children lose a loved one
do not believe I am forsaking
for I am near - promises kept,
crying with you in your pain
yet knowing more than you can now
that it is time though you don't see -
unable at present to understand 'whys,'
for all things work together for the good
to those who love Me and have been
called for My purpose in this world.
Seeds are planted - My power present
to bring changes in those who live
though you suffer for it to happen.
Trust in Me and lean not
to your own understanding."
(Prov. 3:5-6; Rom. 8:28)*

©Carolyn W. Patrinicola 5/99
Hydrated With Love™